THE THEATRE FRANÇAIS or COMEDIE FRANÇAISE is a massive building, near the Palais Royal which was restored by Guodet after the fire of 8th March 1900. It has been used since 1799 for the performances of the COMEDIE FRANÇAISE which owed its origin to Louis XIV in 1680. The theatre enjoys a world-wide reputation and includes in its repertoire all the famous ancient and modern French authors' and dramatists' works. Its interior contains a fine collection of statues and portrait busts, and a museum of relics of Molière and other writers.
